Student Grievance Redressal Policy

A Grievance is any discontent or dissatisfaction, when expressed or not, whether valid or not, arising out of anything that is directly connected to the institute, and which a student thinks, believes, or even feels, is unfair, unjust or inequitable. GNKCW is committed to provide safe equitable anti-ragging and drug free campus, needed for congenial environment for growth of the students. For the purpose of speedy redressal of grievance, special committee is formed to address the problems of every student of each stream. Student Grievance Redressal policy is uploaded on college website www.gnwdh.com. Suggestion box is kept inside the college campus for students and faculty to improve college functionality. College policy manual ensures that any grievance reported by student will be kept anonymous and will be redressed within a week or on most urgent basis.

Objectives of the Policy

- Maintaining a harmonious relationship between and among students, teachers, non-teaching staff, administrators and management.
- Creating an environment in which students can freely express their grievances without fear of discrimination and victimisation.
- Providing a time-bound and effective mechanism for redressal of student grievances and thereby enhance speedy stakeholder satisfaction.

Student Grievance Redressal Policy Cell

The College has constituted a Student Grievances Redressal Cell under the supervision of Principal and team of nominated members of faculty including four students from the student council. The cell emphasizes on the procedural fairness in consideration of ‘the right to be heard and right to be treated without bias.’

The student with grievance may approach the committee members in person, or in consultation with student in-charge of student council members. In case the student is not willing to meet in person, grievance may be dropped in letterbox/suggestion box of the grievances cell installed at various places in College premises.

SCOPE

The students can approach the cell for their grievances regarding issues pertaining to academics, examinations, health services, library, sanitation, preparation of food and other services. Inter-personnel problems and grievances against administrative functioning also fall under its purview.

FUNCTIONS

Functions of the committee

- Establishing positive mechanisms like Grievance Committee with elected student representatives in all colleges.
- To create campus free from ragging, discrimination, harassment, retaliation or sexual assault.
- To inveigle campus with quad team to provide safe and hassle free academic environment
- To sensitize students with policy of sexual harassment and repercussions through webinars.
- To widely circulate the policy through induction programmes of students of all streams.

Procedure for Lodging a complaint

1. The students can lodge a written complaint addressed to the principal, who transfers it to the Student Grievances Redressal cell .
2. The students can also place their complaints and grievances in the suggestion/complaint boxes. The complaint/suggestion boxes are opened regularly to address the complaints therein.
3. The Grievances Cell will act upon those cases which have been forwarded along with necessary documents.
4. The Grievances Cell assures that the grievances have been properly addressed in within the stipulated time limit provided by the cell and to the satisfaction of the complainant.
