Add on courses are the additional value added courses/ add on courses are offered by the college. For enrichment of knowledge, skill development and adding additional value to the achievement of students, add on courses are offered in two subjects viz. Fashion Designing and Functional English.

One who completes one year in any add on course and clears the examination, gets certificate in that particular add on course. The student, who completes two years in the same course and clears the examination, receives 'Diploma' in that very course. Similarly, 'Advanced Diploma' is awarded after completion of three years in the same add on course and after passing of examination.

These courses can be opted along with undergraduate courses viz. B.A., BCA, BBA and B.Com. Students can opt for certificate course of any add on course of her choice at any stage of her degree. Students who have cleared certificate course can appear for diploma and advanced diploma examinations thereafter.

Classes for add on courses are adjusted within the time table of college. Students are well guided for future endeavours along with their course work. They are acquainted with softwares of computer aided designing during their work. Apart from this, a hand on experience is provided to the students by taking them to industrial visits.

Journals and magazines of both the add on courses are available in library.
