The first IQAC meeting of the session was held on August 03, 2020. In the background of the COVID-19 situation, the institution took immediate cognizance and responded promptly by putting a strategy in place and switching over to various modes of online teaching and mentoring. In the wake of the world crisis caused by COVID-19, new pedagogical strategies were discussed by the members of the IQAC. It was decided that ICT tools should be used extensively. The staff was also reassured that adequate provision for a high band internet and Wi-Fi facility will be made in the college.

Other broad areas in which the Institutional Perspective and Strategic Plan have been successfully implemented are given below:

- Members of the Faculty were directed to participate and attend online courses, MOOCs, Webinars, FDPs in the current session
- To make intensive use of ICT tools in teaching-learning process, the college will take measures to strengthen the internet facilities on campus.

- To renew MOUs signed with T.I.M.E. Institute and Bull's Eye since 2017-28
- To make efforts for more academic-industry collaboration in order to empower young women through targeted recruitment, internship programs, MOU's with various industries and, thereby, provide professionally rich opportunities.
- It was planned that by the next session, Self-appraisal pro forma for non-teaching staff will be introduced.
- Faculty and students to be encouraged to participate in increasing numbers of e-Conferences, workshops, and webinars to gain exposure to the latest global trends in academics, industry, sciences and environment.
