ABOUT US

Library is the heart and soul of every educational institute. The Library has a wide range of text books/reference books/e-literature in each subject. It is an updated library & every year the books are updated according to the syllabus provided by the University. There are also national & international journals, books for Competitive exam & free internet facility for students. Leading festivals and book

Exhibitions are arranged under the initiative of the library. Our library is reach With reference books and textbooks, as well as it has subscription of many Educational journals, periodicals and magazines. Daily newspapers are available to students for reading. It is fully computerized. Book bank facility is available for students. It has separate section for PG students.

“One Book, One Pen, One Child and One Teacher can change the world”

House of Reader/Book club, come into existence in the year 2007, when we started to enroll students with the objective to read more books. In the year 2003, we constitute Library Committee of students and enroll two students from each class. In their free periods, they usually were in the library, communicating with the library staff about the books and working of the library. Further, when they were supporting the library staff and, they become aware of so many books of their interest.

In this way their interest towards Biographies, Autobiographies and other books was increased. From this concept, we create book club, to enroll maximum students from all classes. In year 2016, we name it “House of Readers”

In this house various types of activities are performed by students. They read books, wrote their reviews. We invite distinguished personalities from various fields to interact with students. Visit by various personalities in the club.

SYLLABUS DISCUSSION FOR SESSION 2022-23

Syllabus was discussed with the teachers. New books list was prepared to be purchased and ordered. Teachers also examine the subject related books in the library.

National Book Lovers Day, celebrated on 9th August every year, harnesses all the joy bibliophiles feel about books into one large celebration. A special day for all those passionate about reading, this day encourages you to find your favorite reading spot and a good book, and read the day away. It is the day that encourages everyone to pick up a book and spend the day reading. This is the perfect day to honor all the book lovers and bookworms in your life.

- It provides you with knowledge: Even if you're reading fiction, everything you take in provides your brain with new knowledge.
- Reading expands your vocabulary and memory: According to research the more you read, the more you get exposed to new words and expressions, which strengthens your personal vocabulary more and more each day. It improves your memory because it trains your brain to remember characters, plots, and other things that are happening in your book after you set it down.

National Book Month is held each October. The month-long celebration focuses on the importance of reading, writing and literature. National Book Month is also a time to honor the country’s best books and authors. In mid-October, the National Book Awards announces the year’s 15 finalists. In 2018, that will happen on October 10th. The National Book Foundation created the first National Book Month in 2003.

We celebrated the month and done various activities, such as competition among students to speak a quotation, or recite their self-composed poem. We did a quiz contest among house of reader students and winner were awarded by our worthy Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon with medals.
