About the Department

The Department of sociology was established at GNKCW in the year 2000. The key objective of this discipline is to throw light and explain dynamics of relationships that affect individual lives, communities and the world. At the individual level it examines the causes and causes of family conflict, aging, belief system, liquid love and gender identity. At the societal level, sociology investigates deviance, crime, poverty, social movements, rural and urban community. At the global level sociology explores issues such as ethnicity, migration, and population growth and so on. The Department seeks to ensure that the syllabus reflects both classical sociological content and contemporary trends and embarks on periodic review of the syllabus throughout the session.

The International Day of Elderly Persons is observed on October 1 each year, a day to appreciate the contributions that older people make to society. To mark this day, a visit to Nishkaam Bridh Aashram, Bihla village, Ludhiana, was organized by the college. Students interacted with the old-age home residents and distributed eatables amongst them. To make their day brighter, students sang songs for the members of Nishkam Bridh Ashram. Dr. Madhu Dhawan, Head of the Department of Sociology, highlighted that there is a strong need to imbibe core values in our lives and to be responsible towards aged persons. She stressed that we must be thoughtful to elderly people for their physical and emotional well-being. Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon appreciated the efforts and said that the objective behind this initiative was to make the students more responsible towards aged people.

Untouchability is a terrible reality.

Anti Untouchability Week was observed from October 02 to October 08, 2022. On this occasion, a slogan-writing activity was organized under the guidance of Dr. Madhu Dhawan. Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Dhawan highlighted that despite many constitutional amendments, untouchability and discrimination based on caste still persist in India. She added that the objective behind this sensitization drive is to spread the message of equality and respect for all. Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon highlighted that Untouchability creates a difference in society that is not justified. She emphasized that it is essential to raise awareness about it amongst young minds who are the future of our nation

No doubt, children are intended to be more precious blessing for parents and an expansion of joy and happiness around the family but unfortunately there are kids who don't have such fortune and living separately, lacking parental love and guidance. To spread cheerfulness amongst the deprived section, Under the aegis of internal quality assurance cell of GNKCW, Dept of Sociology organised community outreach day on 21st October 2022 under Roshni- Annual Diwali celebration programme “ek Naya paryaas -joy of giving “. at Bal Bhawan school of Red cross society, opposite Deepak Hospital Ludhiana. The activity was carried out under the guidance of Dr Madhu Dhawan, HOD of sociology department. More than 30 students enthusiastically participated. Students made open interaction with the innocent children followed by distribution of sweets. Also students made rangoli and decorated the premises of their school to make them feel a part of our world. Students celebrated ecofriendly Diwali by sapling a plant. These kind gesture of GNKCW aimed to instill the value of empathy, caring and sharing for humanity amongst young minds and also upholding the belief that values are the seeds from which all behaviour grows. College principal Dr Maneeta kahlon appreciated this endeavour and stressed that we make a living by what we get but we make life by what we give
