About the Department

The Department of sociology was established at GNKCW in the year 2000. The key objective of this discipline is to throw light and explain dynamics of relationships that affect individual lives, communities and the world. At the individual level it examines the causes and effects of family conflict, aging, belief system, liquid love and gender identity. At the societal level, sociology investigates deviance, crime, poverty, social movements, rural and urban community. At the global level sociology explores issues such as ethnicity, migration, and population growth and so on. The Department seeks to ensure that the syllabus reflects both classical sociological content and contemporary trends and embarks on periodic review of the syllabus throughout the session.

WORLD DAY FOR INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE

17th July, 2023

Department of Sociology of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Gujarkhan Campus, in collaboration with Women Development Cell observed World Day for International Justice on July 17, 2023

Dr. Madhu Dhawan Head, Department of Sociology addressed the students about the significance of World Day for International Justice, its mandate, and the significance of justice in the fight against impunity for serious international crimes. She elaborated that women across the planet crushed up with acute violations of human rights which solely impose a threat to their existence. Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon stressed that in order to bring change, the need of the hour is to bring change in the mentality and mindset of the people. Laws can only punish the criminal but they cannot prevent the crime to happen, so it is very necessary for people to rise above the clouds of caste, religion, clan, etc.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING DAY
