ANTI-RAGGING REVIEW MEETING

(Held on April 22, 2024)

A meeting was held to review the effectiveness of the anti-ragging measures implemented by the institution throughout the year. Discussion Highlights are as follows;

- Review of Existing Policies: The meeting commenced with a comprehensive review of the current anti-ragging policies and procedures in place. The Nodal Officer highlighted the importance of strict adherence to these policies to ensure a safe and inclusive environment for all students.
- Incident Analysis: A detailed analysis of any reported incidents of ragging over the past academic year was conducted. The Anti-Ragging Squad members provided insights into the nature of these incidents and the actions taken to address them. It was noted that while there were no major incidents, minor cases were promptly addressed through counselling and disciplinary action.

- Feedback from Students: Student representatives shared feedback gathered from their peers regarding the effectiveness of the anti-ragging measures. Suggestions for improving awareness campaigns were discussed and noted for further consideration.
- Training and Awareness Programs: The importance of on-going training and awareness programs for both students and faculty members was emphasized. It was agreed upon to conduct orientation sessions in the beginning of upcoming session to educate the students about the detrimental effects of ragging and the consequences of engaging in such behaviour.
- Enhanced Vigilance: The Anti-Ragging Squad members reaffirmed their commitment to maintaining vigilance across campus, particularly during the upcoming admission season.
