About The Department

The Department Of Economics is one of the pioneer departments of the college established in the year 1969. The department is offering undergraduate courses in Economics. The primary mission of the department is to cultivate an educational environment that fosters the acquisition of knowledge and skills in economics, equipping students to excel as leaders in industry, government, and civil society. By emphasizing a high standard of education, the department seeks to prepare students not only with theoretical knowledge but also with practical tools and analytical capabilities to navigate and address real-world challenges.

The vision of the department focuses on shaping individuals who are capable of critical thinking, independent analysis, and informed decision-making. These qualities are essential for living a life of responsibility, leadership, and service. The department envisions its graduates as well-rounded individuals who contribute meaningfully to their communities and professions, demonstrating ethical behavior and a commitment to societal progress.

To achieve these goals, the department is dedicated to academic excellence by offering rigorous and innovative curricula, fostering intellectual curiosity, and encouraging a culture of lifelong learning. This commitment ensures that students remain adaptive and relevant in an ever-evolving global landscape. Whether through research, internships, or interactive learning opportunities, the department strives to instill in students the values of responsibility, leadership, and service, enabling them to leave a lasting positive impact on society.

ACTIVITIES OF THE DEPARTMENT

January 23, 2025

Group Discussion Activity

The Department of Economics, under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Gujar Khan Campus, Model Town, Ludhiana, organized a Group Discussion Activity on the topic "Impact of Population on Economic Development of an Economy" on January 23, 2025, for the first-year students.

Four groups, each comprising four to five students, actively participated in the discussion. The group leaders—Neha Rumpal, Gurleen Kaur, Kavya Jain, and Vanshika effectively presented their group's findings, providing in-depth insights into the topic. The discussion witnessed the exchange of well-researched perspectives, highlighting various dimensions of the relationship between population growth and economic development.

Mrs. Seema Dua, Head of the Department of Economics, commended the students for their analytical approach and valuable contributions to the discussion. Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, appreciated the efforts of the Department of Economics for organizing this intellectually stimulating activity, which encouraged students to engage in critical thinking and collaborative learning.

World Consumer Rights Day

Under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), the Department of Economics at Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, GujarKhan Campus, Model Town, Ludhiana, observed World Consumer Rights Day on March 15, 2025. The event aimed to raise awareness about consumer rights and responsibilities while promoting the theme of the year: "A Just Transition to a Sustainable Lifestyle."

The event commenced with an insightful address by Mrs. Seema Dua, Head of the Department of Economics, who elaborated on the significance of this year's theme. She highlighted how consumer choices and behaviors play a crucial role in shaping sustainable economic and environmental practices. She stressed the need for informed decision-making, responsible consumption, and the transition towards eco-friendly alternatives to ensure a just and sustainable future for all.

Following this, Ms. Neha Dawar, Assistant Professor of Economics, spoke about the importance of World Consumer Rights Day in empowering consumers. She encouraged participants to be vigilant and proactive in making ethical and sustainable choices in their daily lives. Forty nine faculty members attended this event.

The event was graced by the presence of Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, who shared her views on the relevance of consumer rights in today's dynamic economic landscape. She commended the Economics Department for organizing such an interactive and thought-provoking session, appreciating their efforts in enlightening faculty members on issues that directly impact their lives. She emphasized that fostering consumer awareness is crucial in ensuring fair trade, ethical business practices, and environmental sustainability.

Remedial and Revision classes

Department of Economics of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women organized remedial and revision classes for BA 4th Semester. With the final University Examinations of the even semester approaching, these sessions proved to be both timely and essential.

The classes were aimed at addressing students' queries, revising important concepts, and discussing previous years' question papers. Dedicated support, especially to slow learners, was provided helping them overcome academic challenges and clarify their doubts. The initiative saw commendable participation, not only from slow learners but also from other students who eagerly took advantage of the opportunity to strengthen their preparation.
