HOSTEL COMMITTEE MEETING

Under the aegis of the IQAC a hostel committee meeting was convened in the Principal's office at Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women. During the meeting, the head girls and members of the hostel committee interacted with the canteen owner to address their concerns regarding food quality, pricing, and dining room schedules. The students also engaged in a discussion with the Principal about the hostel's atmosphere and discipline, expressing that they feel very happy and safe within the premises.

Additionally, they discussed the induction of new entrants into the hostel, with the Principal assuring them that the newcomers would be well taken care of and guided on the traditions and rituals that have been upheld over the years. The students were also reminded that ragging is strictly prohibited in the hostel, and it was noted that the new entrants are content and well-adjusted.

(September 27, 2024)

GNKCW Organizes Sensitization Program in Response to Hostel Ragging Incident in a University in Himachal Pradesh

In response to a recent ragging incident at a university hostel in Himachal Pradesh, where a student was severely ragged, the Discipline and Anti ragging committee of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Gujarkhan Campus, Model Town, Ludhiana held a special Sensitization Program aimed at educating students about the dangers of ragging and fostering a culture of mutual respect and safety on campus.

The students were sensitised about the psychological and emotional trauma caused by ragging, the legal consequences of engaging in such behaviour, and their role in creating a ragging-free environment.

Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, Principal of the college, emphasized the importance of mutual respect and maintaining a safe, supportive academic space for all students.

GNKCW stands in solidarity with the victim of the Himachal Pradesh incident and reiterates its commitment to upholding the safety, dignity, and respect of every student.

ANTI-RAGGING SQUAD

Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women has taken a significant step towards ensuring a safe and inclusive environment for its students by forming an Anti-Ragging Squad. The squad has been established under the guidance of the college's Discipline and Anti-Ragging Committee and aims to maintain a zero-tolerance policy towards any form of ragging on campus.

The Anti-Ragging Squad will actively monitor the campus and act as a vigilant force to prevent and address any incidents of ragging. The squad will also conduct regular checks, provide immediate support to students, and ensure strict enforcement of anti-ragging laws.

Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, Principal of GNKCW, emphasized the importance of maintaining a harmonious and respectful campus environment.
