POTLUCK Lunches

Day 1

Great shades of blue, you find them in nature. They're all magic.

In the midst of the festive month of December, a series of potluck lunch parties are organized by/for the staff. On December 16, 2024, The blue colour themed potluck lunch party was planned by the Group-I comprising Dr. Kuldeep Kaur, Dr. Neetu Prakash, Dr. Nidhi Sharma, Mrs. Manpreet Kaur, Mrs. Baljeet Kaur, Mrs. Parminder Kaur, Dr. Ravneet Kaur, Ms. Chakshu Khanna, Ms. Blossom Singla, Ms. Manmeet Madhok and Ms. Minika Bawa.

It was a resounding success, bringing together friends and colleagues for an afternoon of food, fun, and fellowship. The spread of food was truly impressive, with a diverse array of dishes showcasing the creativity and culinary skills of the staff. From Authentic Indian Chole Kulche to sweet traditional Kesar Kheer, there was no shortage of delicious treats to indulge in. The Staff mingled and sampled each other's creations, exchanging recipes and compliments along the way. The idea of Blue colour was to add a touch of creativity and fun to the traditional potluck gathering by incorporating a specific color scheme. What transpired was a delightful and memorable event filled with delicious food, laughter, and an aesthetic decoration.

As the party drew to a close, bellies full and hearts light, the group members departed with smiles on their faces, already looking forward to the next gathering of good food and great company.

Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon mentioned that through creative planning, attention to detail, and a spirit of collaboration, the event showcased the joy of coming together to celebrate the season and each other's company. She emphasized that it is important to integrate fun breaks in the work schedule to create a positive and welcoming work environment thereby nurturing happier, healthier, and more productive staff.

Under the guidance of Madam Principal, the Staff Welfare Society of the GNKCW regularly organizes activities for building a positive work culture.

Day 2

Desi Delight – Rajmah Chawal

On December 17, 2024, Group-II hosted a delightful potluck lunch party, featuring Mrs. Maninder, Mrs. Seema Dua, Dr. Kirti, Ms. Shikha Kalra, Dr. Shikha Bajaj, Ms. Amarpreet, Ms. Neha, Ms. Yukti, Ms. Jaspreet, and Ms. Kusha. The event embraced a vibrant theme of pink and wine colors, with all staff members beautifully dressed to match.

The culinary theme revolved around two iconic Indian dishes: Rajma Chawal and Dahi Bhalla. Aptly described as “A desi delight, hearty and light – Rajma Chawal” and “Beat the heat with the chill of Dahi Bhalla!” these comfort foods set the tone for a wholesome and flavorful gathering. To add a wintry touch and satisfy everyone's sweet tooth, Gachak was relished by all.

The College Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, applauded the team's efforts, commending the delicious food, its creative garnishing, the beautiful decorations, and the warm hospitality extended by the hosts. The potluck party brought together flavors, camaraderie, and festive cheer, making it a memorable occasion for all attendees.

Day 3

Get Aboard this Dus-Ratna Express for Idli-go-crazy Ride

At Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Gujarkhan Campus, Group 4 of the staff hosted a vibrant potluck lunch for the teaching faculty on December 18, 2024 as part of the endeavour of the Staff Welfare Society. The event showcased the culinary and cultural richness of South India, organized by Dr. Punpreet Kaur, Dr. Madhu Dhawan, Dr. Anupam Vatsyayan, Mrs. Gagneet Pal Kaur, Mrs. Kavita Kuplish, Ms. Rachna, Ms. Kritika Gupta, Mrs. Upinder Kaur, Ms. Ramneek Kaur, and Ms. Komalpreet Kaur Sohanpal.

The menu featured steaming Idli Sambhar, fragrant Lemon Rice, and a delectable Suji Halwa, which were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. The meal was thoughtfully served on banana leaves, adding an authentic touch to the experience. The gathering radiated warmth and unity, with teachers adorning beautiful yellow and mustard attire. Guests were welcomed in a traditional manner with prayers to Lord Ganesha, setting an auspicious tone for the event.

The occasion was graced by Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, who expressed her heartfelt appreciation for the meticulous arrangements, delightful decor, and the team's commendable efforts in creating a memorable celebration.

Day 4

Go Green on National Farmer's Day

Under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), the staff celebrated “National Farmer's Day” in the college campus on December 23, 2025. December 23 has been observed as National Farmer's Day to create awareness and to educate the people on the role of farmers and their contribution.

On this occasion, the rich agricultural heritage of Punjab was exhibited and the traditional food like “Makki di roti with Saag” was relished by the faculty members of the college.

The event also highlighted the legacy of the Indian Knowledge System, which historically upheld practices such as crop rotation and organic farming, reflecting the sustainable traditions of our ancestors.

Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, in her address, emphasized the importance of honoring farmers for their dedication to feeding the nation.
