Under the aegis of IQAC, NSS Unit of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Ludhiana organised 7-Day NSS Camp from January 10 to January 16, 2025.

Morning Session

The 7-day NSS camp began with the registration of NSS volunteers. The theme of the camp, "Nasha Mukti Bharat," aimed at promoting a drug-free India, was introduced to the participants. The camp was officially inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon. She encouraged the volunteers to actively participate in the upcoming activities.

To ensure the smooth functioning of the camp, various committees were formed, including the Refreshment Committee, Cultural Committee, Writing Committee, Discipline Committee, Anchoring Committee. The morning session featured the following activities:

Pledge on Drug Abuse

The volunteers took a solemn pledge to spread awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse and work towards a drug-free society.

Slogan Writing: Students wrote powerful slogans aimed at raising awareness about the dangers of drug abuse.

Poem Recitation: Several students recited poems centred around the theme of a drug-free India.

Refreshment: Tea and lunch were served to the volunteers during the break.

Celebration of Hindi Diwas

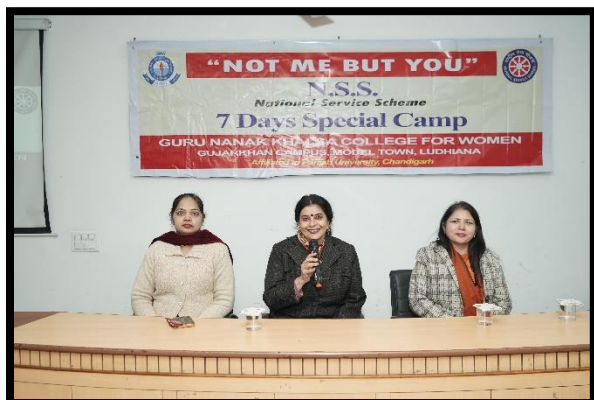

The college also celebrated Hindi Diwas in the morning. Students engaged in a group discussion about the significance of the Hindi language and its cultural importance in India.

Evening Session

The evening session began with a Group Discussion on Nasha Mukti Bharat, where students participated enthusiastically, discussing various ways to combat drug abuse and promote a drug-free India. The discussion provided valuable insights into how individuals and society can contribute to this cause.

At the end of the evening session, Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, addressed the students, appreciating their active participation in the day's activities. She praised their efforts in promoting the theme of the camp and encouraged them to continue their work with dedication throughout the week.

Morning Session

Screening of Laapata Ladies

On Day 3 of the NSS Camp, the morning session began with the screening of the movie Laapata Ladies for NSS (National Service Scheme) volunteers. The film focused on women empowerment, addressing the challenges and triumphs of women navigating societal expectations. It emphasized the importance of gender equality, supporting women's rights, and the role of education in breaking societal barriers. The movie inspired volunteers to understand how education can empower women and build a more equal society.

Evening Session:

Community Service at Gurudwara and National Youth Day Broadcast

The evening session included a meaningful community service activity where NSS volunteers cleaned carpets at the Gurudwara. The students worked in teams, demonstrating strong collaboration and a sense of responsibility. Their efforts created a welcoming environment for visitors and enhanced the spiritual atmosphere of the Gurudwara. This activity reinforced the values of service and collective effort.

Later in the evening, volunteers participated in the live broadcast of the Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi's address at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi, marking National Youth Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. During the event, the Prime Minister engaged in the Viksit Bharat Young Leaders Dialogue, inspiring over 3,000 young leaders with his vision for India's development. The address motivated the youth to play an active role in the nation's progress.

Madam Principal's Address

Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, addressed the NSS volunteers, lauding their enthusiastic participation in both the movie screening and the evening activities. She commended their dedication to community service at the Gurudwara, emphasizing the importance of selfless service in personal growth and character building.

Day 4 of the NSS Camp at Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Ludhiana, began with a rejuvenating Yoga Session conducted by Mrs. Parminder Kaur from the Physical Education Department. Participants actively engaged in a variety of yoga practices, including breathing exercises to enhance mindfulness and focus, stretching exercises to improve flexibility and relieve tension, and relaxation techniques to promote inner calm and overall well-being. The session aimed to instill the importance of physical fitness and mental health among the volunteers, fostering a holistic approach to well-being.

Later, Brahma Kumaris (BK) Sister Jyotsana delivered an insightful lecture on the theme "Self-Service to Nation's Service." She emphasized the significance of self-improvement as the foundation for contributing positively to society and highlighted the interconnectedness of individual well-being and national progress. Sister Jyotsana shared practical methods to develop inner positivity, such as meditation, self-reflection, and maintaining an optimistic mindset.

She encouraged the participants to extend their positivity by inspiring and supporting others to adopt a constructive and hopeful attitude. Sister Jyotsana highlighted the ripple effect of such actions, explaining that small acts of kindness and encouragement could lead to broader societal transformation. Through her motivational session, she inspired the attendees to recognize self-service as an essential step in building a stronger and more harmonious nation.

In the evening session of Day 4 at the NSS Camp, Lohri was celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy. The students came together to partake in traditional Lohri dances, including the energetic Bhangra and Gidda, which are emblematic of the harvest festival. The dances were filled with vibrant energy, and the atmosphere was lively with the sounds of music and clapping.

As part of the celebration, students enjoyed the traditional treats of moongfali (peanuts) and rewaris (sesame candy), which are commonly shared during the Lohri festival. These snacks, symbolizing warmth and prosperity, added to the festive spirit, and the students bonded over the joyous occasion. The celebration provided a wonderful opportunity for everyone to experience the cultural richness of the festival while fostering camaraderie among the participants.

Refreshments and lunch were served to the students on Day 4 of the NSS Camp at Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Ludhiana, ensuring that the participants were energized and well-fed during the day's activities.

MORNING SESSION

Physical exercise:

The fifth day of the NSS Camp began with a morning session of physical exercise, where NSS volunteers actively participated in various fitness activities. These exercises aimed to enhance physical well-being, promote a healthy lifestyle, and instill the importance of regular physical activity in their daily lives. The session was guided by trained instructors, ensuring that the participants performed the exercises correctly and efficiently. The enthusiasm and energy displayed by the volunteers set a positive tone for the rest of the day.

Maghi Sangrand celebrations :

Following the exercise session, the volunteers, along with the NSS coordinators, visited a nearby Gurdwara to partake in the Maghi Sangrand celebrations, a significant Sikh festival observed to mark the beginning of the month of Magh. The students participated in spiritual activities, including listening to kirtan (devotional hymns) and collective singing. They also engaged in prayer and seva (selfless service) as part of the celebration. The visit provided an opportunity for the volunteers to reflect on the values of humility, devotion, and community service, which are central to the spirit of NSS.

Meditation session:

A special meditation session was conducted to promote mental well-being and holistic health among the students. The session was led by Kunwar Ranjan, a renowned Mind & Meditation Expert, Happiness & Wellness Coach, and Founder of Vasudhaiv Kutumb Pariwar. He guided the volunteers through techniques aimed at relieving stress, calming the mind, and fostering positivity. Kunwar Ranjan emphasized the importance of living in the present moment and provided strategies to help students let go of their past and embrace a stress-free life.

The session also featured a lecture by Acharya Dr. Lokesh Sharma, the Founder of the Nature Veda Health Institute, Ludhiana, and a prominent figure in the field of naturopathy and Ayurveda. Dr. Sharma holds several distinguished positions, including: President, Sahara Charitable Trust, Incharge, Naturopathy Ayurveda Panchkarma Department at Rehbar Hospital and Medical College, Bhawanigarh, Punjab.

Dr. Sharma delivered an insightful talk on the principles of Ayurveda, explaining key concepts such as Vata, Pitta, Kapha, which represent the three fundamental doshas (body types or energies) in Ayurveda. He also introduced the students to the Ayurvedic principles of Chhad Ras (six tastes) and Katu Ras (pungent taste), elaborating on their significance in maintaining physical and mental balance. He highlighted how understanding these concepts can help individuals lead healthier and more harmonious lives.

The session provided an enriching experience for the students, blending traditional Ayurvedic wisdom with modern stress-relief techniques. It was highly appreciated by the participants, who felt rejuvenated and inspired to incorporate these practices into their daily lives.

EVENING SESSION

Art and Craft Workshop:

On the evening of Day 5 of the NSS Camp at Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Ludhiana, a creative and engaging Art and Craft Workshop was conducted by Mrs. Balwinder Kaur, a faculty member from the Department of Fine Arts. The workshop aimed to inspire students to explore their creativity while promoting the concept of recycling and sustainable practices.

During the session, students were taught to craft a variety of artistic and functional items using simple materials such as chart paper and newspapers. Under Mrs. Kaur's guidance, they learned to make:

Paper Bags – Encouraging eco-friendly alternatives to plastic bags.

Flowers – Beautiful and colorful creations that could be used for decoration.

Paper Boxes – Practical items that could serve as storage solutions or gift boxes.

The workshop also emphasized the importance of upcycling, teaching students how to repurpose waste paper into attractive and useful items. This aspect of the workshop not only honed their artistic skills but also fostered a sense of responsibility towards the environment by promoting the idea of reducing waste.

Other Activities:

After the art and craft workshop, students enjoyed various activities such as fun games, soaking up the sunny day, sharing laughter, and engaging in outdoor play. The day was filled with joy and relaxation as they bonded over team challenges, creative storytelling sessions, and even a picnic under the bright, clear skies. It was a perfect balance of creativity and recreation that left everyone with smiles and unforgettable memories

जी.एन.के.सी.डब्ल्यू. में एन.एस.एस. शिविर के 5वें दिन 'नशा मुक्त भारत' के तहत करवाई रचनात्मक गतिविधियां

लुधियाना, 15 जनवरी (विक्की):
गुरु नानक खालसा कॉलेज फॉर विमेन के एन.एस.एस. यूनिट द्वारा आयोजित 7-दिवसीय एन.एस.एस. शिविर के 5वें दिन छात्रों ने शारीरिक फिटनेस, मानसिक शांति, रचनात्मकता और उत्सवों का शानदार मिश्रण अनुभव किया। इस शिविर का थीम 'नशा मुक्त भारत' है।

दिन की शुरुआत एक ऊर्जावान शारीरिक व्यायाम सत्र से हुई जिसमें स्वस्थ जीवनशैली को बढ़ावा दिया गया।

कुंवर रंजन, मानसिक और ध्यान विशेषज्ञ द्वारा ध्यान सत्र और डॉ. लोकेश शर्मा के आयुर्वेदिक व्याख्यान ने छात्रों को तनाव मुक्ति, सकारात्मकता और समग्र स्वास्थ्य के बारे में महत्वपूर्ण ज्ञान दिया। इसके बाद स्वयंसेवक मकर संक्रांति समारोह के लिए कॉलेज के गुरुद्वारा साहिब में पहुंचे। स्वयंसेवकों ने भक्ति और विनम्रता के मूल्यों को मजबूत करते हुए कीर्तन, अरदास और सेवा में भाग लिया।

तत्पश्चात छात्रों ने बलविंदर कौर के नेतृत्व में कला और शिल्प कार्यशाला में भाग लिया। दिन का समापन खेलों और बंधन गतिविधियों से हुआ जो सभी को ताजगी और खुशी से भर दिया।

एन.एस.एस. कार्यक्रम अधिकारियों डॉ. नीति प्रकाश और सतवंत कौर के मार्गदर्शन में शिविर जागरूकता, सशक्तिकरण और सांस्कृतिक मूल्यों को प्रेरित करता रहा। कॉलेज की प्रिंसिपल डॉ. मनीता काहलों ने छात्रों की सराहना करते हुए कहा कि छात्रों ने सीखने, रचनात्मकता और समुदाय की भावना को सुंदर रूप से मिलाकर एन.एस.एस. का असली सार प्रस्तुत किया है।

<h2>Morning Session</h2> <h3>Yoga Session</h3> On the 7th day of the NSS camp, Mrs. Parminder Kaur, a dedicated instructor from the Physical Education Department, led a comprehensive yoga session for the students. She began by introducing the various benefits of yoga, emphasizing how it helps in improving physical health, mental well-being, and overall focus. Mrs. Kaur guided the students through a series of asanas (yoga postures) that focused on flexibility, strength, and relaxation.

Meditation session

On Day 7 of the NSS Camp at Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Ludhiana, Ms. Kusum and Ms. Nancy from Art of Living, Model Town, Ludhiana, conducted a meditation session. They guided students through meditation techniques and offered advice on career choices and personal growth.

EVENING SESSION

Volunteers played different games

In the evening, students participated in various games and enjoyed the warmth of the sunny day. These activities allowed them to unwind, bond with each other, and relax after the busy schedule of the NSS Camp. The games fostered teamwork and added joy to the day.

Share their experiences

Later, the students gathered to share their experiences from the seven-day NSS Camp. They reflected on the skills they had learned, the friendships they had formed, and the positive impact the camp had on their lives. Many expressed feeling inspired to contribute to society and lead a disciplined life.

Mission LiFE

Dr. Neetu Prakash, NSS Programme Coordinator, and Mrs. Satwant Kaur addressed the students about Mission LiFE (Lifestyle for Environment). They emphasized how small actions such as conserving energy, reducing waste, and using resources wisely can protect the environment. They encouraged everyone to adopt eco-friendly habits that benefit both people and nature.

The coordinators commended the students for their active participation and enthusiasm throughout the camp, motivating them to continue serving others and embodying the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You." Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, also encouraged the students to participate wholeheartedly in every activity and appreciated their dedication. The evening concluded on a positive and inspiring note, leaving the students motivated to make a meaningful difference in their communities.

Under the aegis of IQAC, the NSS Unit of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Model Town, Ludhiana organised an informative lecture on "Registration and Utilization of "My Bharat Portal"- a national platform that helps young people in India learn and grow through Hands on experience, practical activities, opportunities to gain real world experience, develop essential skills and meaningfully contribute to society by choosing from a variety of experiential learning programs and engaging with Industry professionals on 28th February, 2025.

The lecture was commendably delivered by Ms. Minika Bawa (Assistant Professor in Department of Business Management).

The lecture covered the steps to register on the portal along with a focus on building an effective Resume/CV. She told the importance of building a good CV to the students as it is one of the best tool through which students can showcase their skills and experience to the potential employers by updating their skills such as key achievements, academic qualifications, certifications on the portal. She highlighted the importance of such a great platform as it's a need of an hour for the youth.

Additionally, she discussed about various online learning platforms such as Coursera, Udemy, Swayam from where the students can enhance their learning by doing number of courses of their interest with a nominal fee or without paying any fee. Students had a very interactive session.

Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon emphasized the importance of such awareness drive and stated that this lecture will make the students feel more confident about their job applications and ultimately will make them more competitive in the job market.

World Environment Day

THEME: REDUCE PLASTIC WASTE AND SAVE OUR PLANET

Join the campaign to reduce plastic waste through practices like recycling correctly, avoiding single-use plastics, and using reusable items.

USE REUSABLE BAGS

To cut down on single-use plastic bags, bring reusable shopping bags. This is to reduce plastic waste significantly and promote sustainability.

AVOID SINGLE-USE PLASTICS

Refuse plastic bottles, cutlery, and straws. Reduce the massive amount of plastic waste that ends up in the seas and landfills.

CHOOSE SUSTAINABLE PACKAGING

Select goods with recyclable or minimal packaging. This measure lessens plastic waste and encourages businesses to adopt eco-friendly practices.

BRING YOUR OWN CONTAINER

Reduces the requirement for single-use plastic containers. Therefore, kindly use your own containers for leftovers and take-out food.

RECYCLE PROPERLY

Observe regional recycling regulations and appropriately sort recyclables.
