4. Celebrated International Yoga Day

Under the aegis of the IQAC, the NCC Unit, NSS Unit and Red Ribbon Club in collaboration with Department of Physical Education of Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Model Town, Ludhiana, celebrated International Yoga Day on June 21, 2025. The event aimed to raise awareness about the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of yoga and to encourage its regular practice among youth.

The day commenced with a vibrant yoga session conducted by Ms. Raj from Yogini Yoga and Bungee Studio, along with her team of experienced instructors. They guided the students through a series of yoga asanas, pranayama (breathing exercises), and meditation techniques. The session helped students understand how yoga contributes to overall well-being by promoting flexibility, strength, focus, and inner calm.

As part of the nationwide celebration, students also participated in an online pledge and quiz hosted on the official MyGov portal. The online pledge allowed students to commit themselves to practicing yoga regularly for a healthy lifestyle, while the quiz tested their knowledge about the origin, philosophy, and significance of yoga.

Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon appreciated the sincere efforts of the participating students, and faculty members for successfully organizing the event and making it impactful.

16. Celebrated National Sports Day

As per the UGC guidelines, the college celebrated National Sports Day on August 29, 2025. The events included Badminton, Basketball, and a 100m Race, which witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various classes.

The celebration was held to commemorate the birth anniversary of Hockey legend Major Dhyan Chand. It also served as a reminder of the Fit India Movement, launched in 2019 by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, to inspire the youth towards adopting a healthy and active lifestyle.

The theme for this year's celebration was:

“Sports as an Enabler for a Fit and Inclusive Society.”

On this occasion, Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon addressed the gathering and applauded the active involvement of the students. She motivated them to integrate sports and fitness into their daily routine, highlighting the role of physical activity in building discipline, teamwork, and lifelong well-being.

The event concluded on a high note, promoting sportsmanship, teamwork, and friendship, while instilling the spirit of fitness and inclusivity among the students.

21. Observed the International Day of Tolerance

Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Model Town, Ludhiana, observed the International Day of Tolerance on November 12, 2025, ahead of the official global observance on November 16. The event was organized collaboratively by the Red Ribbon Club, NSS Unit, NCC Wing, and the Department of Fine Arts, under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college.

To mark the occasion, students created vibrant and meaningful rangolis that visually depicted the values of tolerance, compassion, and peaceful coexistence. Each artwork aimed to highlight the importance of dialogue, empathy, and active respect for differences, emphasizing how these principles form the foundation of a harmonious society and contribute significantly to peace and human development.

Speaking on the occasion, Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon expressed, “The International Day of Tolerance reminds us that embracing diversity is not just a social obligation, but a human necessity. Our students’ creative expressions reflect the spirit of unity and respect that we strive to cultivate on our campus. It is through understanding and empathy that we can build a peaceful and progressive world.”
