Staff meeting regarding Academic Calendar and Code of Conduct of the college

A staff meeting was held on July 14, 2025. It was initiated by the Principal, Dr. ManeetaKahlon, who extended a warm welcome to all staff members. One of the key agendas was the discussion of the academic calendar for the upcoming odd semester. Important dates regarding the commencement of classes, examination schedules, holidays, and special events were shared to ensure that faculty members are well-informed and can plan their teaching and research activities efficiently.

The challenges and implications of implementing the National Education Policy (NEP) were also discussed in detail. Teachers were encouraged to stay updated and equip themselves to meet these evolving academic requirements.

A significant focus was also laid on the college's code of conduct. Madam Principal apprised the staff members of the institutional rules, regulations, and the expected standards of professional and ethical behavior within the college premises. She emphasized that the college is committed to maintaining a positive, disciplined, and respectful environment that fosters academic excellence and professional integrity. Faculty members were reminded to lead by example and contribute to upholding the values and decorum of the institution at all times.

To organize an Induction Programme cum Code of Conduct Session for first-year students

The college organized an Induction Programme cum Code of Conduct Session for the newly admitted first year students of BA,B.Com, BBA and BCA. The event aimed to familiarize the students with the institutional ethos, academic environment, and expected standards of behavior within the campus.

The programme began with a warm welcome to the students to emphasize the importance of orientation in bridging the gap between school and college life. This was followed by an inspiring inaugural address by Dr. ManeetaKahlon, the Principal of the college, who highlighted the institution's vision, values, and the role of students in upholding its legacy.

A special session on the Code of Conduct was conducted by Mrs. Gagneet Pal Kaur (Assistant Professor, PG Dept. Of English), who sensitized the students about the college's policies on academic integrity, discipline, attendance, anti-ragging guidelines, and ethical behavior. The speaker urged students to maintain decorum and responsibility both within and outside the campus.

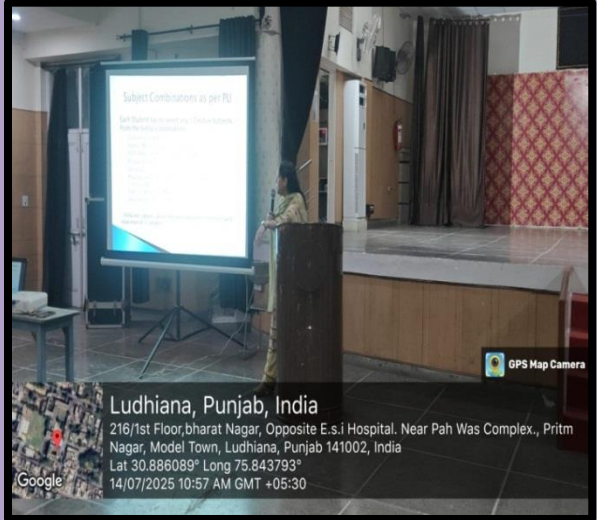

The induction programme also included an overview of various student support services, such as the library, mentorship cell, grievance redressal system, and extracurricular clubs, ensuring that the students feel welcomed and well-informed from the very first day.

To organize an Anti-Ragging Rally and promote a zero-tolerance policy on ragging

An Anti-Ragging Rally was carried out in the college campus today. This rally was part of its ongoing efforts to create a safe, respectful, and welcoming environment for all students.

The rally witnessed active participation from all students, who raised awareness about the ill effects of ragging through self-made posters on anti-ragging themes. Following the rally, a pledge campaign was conducted where students took an oath to stand against any form of ragging and to support a culture of respect and kindness.

This initiative aims to sensitize students about the importance of maintaining dignity, respect, and discipline on campus.

Principal Dr. ManeetaKahlon stated that the college remains committed to upholding a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and continues to educate students on their rights and responsibilities through such programs.

The rally was organised under the guidance of Dr. PunpreetKaur, Nodal officer, Discipline and Anti Ragging Committee.

To conduct a Student Mentoring Meet

A Student Mentoring Meet was held on July 30, 2025. The session commenced with a warm welcome to the students, setting a positive and engaging tone. An introduction to the Mentor-Mentee concept was presented, highlighting its role in fostering academic and personal development. It was announced that such mentoring sessions will now be held regularly at the end of every month.

Students were informed about key guidelines and announcements, including the requirement to maintain a minimum of 75% attendance to be academically eligible. The leave protocol was also discussed: leaves up to seven days must be approved by mentors, while extended leaves require authorization from the College Registrar, Mrs. SeemaDua.

Details about upcoming events in August were also shared:

Fresher's Welcome to greet the new batch with joy, music, and dance

Teej Celebration to embrace cultural traditions and festivity

Talent Hunt Competition to showcase students' unique skills (dates to be announced)

Students were encouraged to follow the college's official Facebook and Instagram pages for regular updates.

Campus rules and regulations were reiterated:

Face coverings are not allowed within the college premises and may only be worn after exiting the college gate

Mobile phone usage is prohibited during lectures

Discipline and cleanliness must be strictly maintained

Students must remain in the official WhatsApp group to receive timely updates

Compliance reminders included the mandatory submission of the Anti-Ragging Undertaking and the final deadline of July 31, 2025, for BA First Year students to request any subject changes.

Students were also reminded that the campus is under CCTV surveillance, and any antisocial behavior will be dealt with seriously.

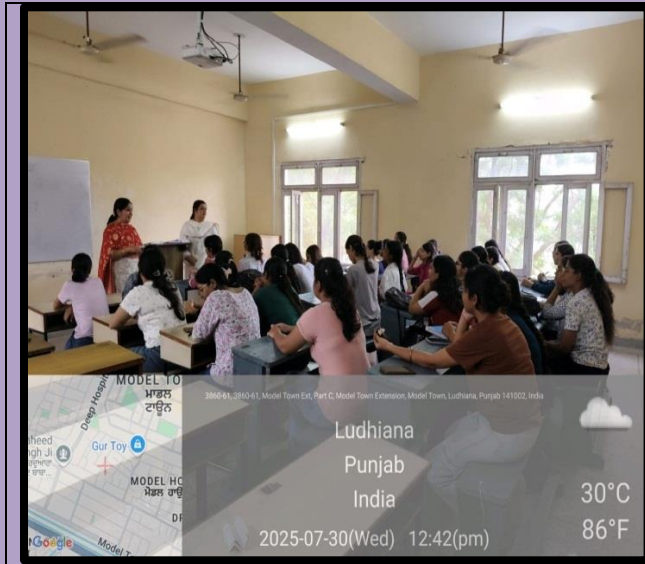

The meeting concluded with a note from the Principal Dr. ManeetaKahlon reaffirming the college's commitment to a safe, disciplined, and enriching academic environment for all.

To organize the 11th International Humanity Olympiad

The Code of Conduct Committee, in collaboration with SatyugDarshan Trust, organized the 11th International Humanity Olympiad on August 08, 2025

The primary objective of the Olympiad was to promote core human values—contentment, endurance, truthfulness, and righteousness among students. Dr. Supriya Khanna from Krishna Hospital, Model Town, Ludhiana, emphasized that inculcating humanitarian values is essential for achieving true success in life. She shared with the students the official link to the 11th International Humanity Olympiad and encouraged them to participate, describing it as a valuable platform for self-reflection based on moral and ethical principles. She also provided guidance to help students attempt the Olympiad effectively. 495 students appeared in this olympiad.

Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon expressed her sincere gratitude to Dr. Supriya Khanna for motivating students to become responsible citizens and compassionate human beings by integrating moral and ethical values into their lives.

Naitik Sikhiya Imtihan

Under the aegis of IQAC, Guru Nanak Khalsa College for Women, Gujarkhan Campus, Model Town, Ludhiana, the Department of Punjabi, in collaboration with Guru Gobind Singh Study Circle, conducted an exam on moral education entitled “NaitikSikhiyaImtihan” on November 4, 2025. The exam was dedicated to the 350th Martyrdom Anniversary of the Ninth Guru, Sri Guru TeghBahadurJi.

A total of 23 students appeared in the exam with great enthusiasm. The objective of this exam was to create awareness among students about the life and unparalleled sacrifice of Guru TeghBahadurJi. Remembering his supreme martyrdom, the event inspired students to adopt moral values and follow the path shown by the revered Guru.

Principal Dr. ManeetaKahlon appreciated this noble initiative of the Department of Punjabi and Guru Gobind Singh Study Circle for organizing such activities that connect students with their rich religious and cultural heritage.

An insightful and spiritually enriching session by members of the Brahma Kumaris

An insightful and spiritually enriching session was conducted by the Code of Conduct and Professional Ethics Committee under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The session was led by members of the Brahma Kumaris, who shared profound wisdom on cultivating positivity and inner strength.

During the interaction, the speakers emphasized the importance of positive energies, mental wellbeing, forgiveness, inner peace, and enlightenment in leading a balanced and fulfilled life. Faculty members were guided on how to channel their thoughts constructively and maintain emotional stability in challenging situations.

The session also included practical meditation exercises, enabling participants to experience calmness, mindfulness, and spiritual connection firsthand. These activities encouraged attendees to adopt meditation as a daily practice for improved mental health.

Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon appreciated the initiative, stating, “Such sessions play a crucial role in nurturing emotional resilience, moral values, and inner harmony among students. The guidance provided by the Brahma Kumaris will help our learners develop a positive mindset and lead a life enriched with peace and ethical strength.”
