Courses Offered

M.A. (English)

The MA English Literature Program enhances the interpretative and expressive skills of students in an intellectual environment that is stimulating and nurturing. It equips students with both – a rigorous knowledge of the subject as well as a critical and analytical ability. The two year post-graduate program in English (M.A. English) is divided into four semesters. The syllabus (as prescribed by Panjab University, Chandigarh) in each semester introduces the students to literary study and focuses on critical techniques, approaches, and debates to provide the students with the basic tools for research and analysis.

M.A. I

1. Literary Movements-I and II
2. Approaches to Literary Criticism - I and II
3. British Literature -I and III
4. British Literature - II and IV

M.A. II

1. Critical Theory- I and II
2. Shakespeare - I and II
3. Postcolonial Studies- I and II
4. American Literature - I and II
5. Research Methods (in Semester III)
6. Soft Skill Enhancement (in Semester IV)

B.A.

English Honors

English Elective

English Compulsory

Add on Course (Annual Course-Only for students studying under Non-NEP framework)

Functional English/Communicative English

The college offers an add-on course in Communicative English in the UG program with the main objective to motivate fresh students to seek self-employment as well as to inculcate in them the spirit of entrepreneurship. It focuses on skills such as vocabulary- building, phonetics pronunciation and correct usage of grammar. It aims at making the youngsters self-sufficient, self-dependent and confident, so that they can opt for their own enterprise or can take up employment.

Advance Diploma : Three Year Course

Under NEP framework implemented by Panjab University, Chandigarh,
English is offered as an Ability Enhancement Course
to first and second year students across all streams.

Activities of the Department

1. Ice Breaking Session - “The Book of Me”

August 18

The PG Department of English organized an ice-breaking session for the fresh entrants of M.A. I (English). The session featured a creative and introspective activity titled “The Book of Me.”

In this unique initiative, the students translated their life stories into the form of a book, complete with thoughtfully designed cover pages that reflected their personal journeys. 18 out of the 23 attendees shared their book ideas with the audience, offering glimpses into their identities, aspirations, and reflections:

1. Ridhima: Cool Girls Teach

2. Sartaj: Life Measured in Cups of Flour

3. Amandeep: Hope in Every Swing

4. Jasleen: Ordinary Girl with an Extraordinary God

5. Khushi: Still Blooming

6. Lovdeep Kaur: Becoming Me

7. Varsia: Learning Through Losing

8. Harjot: Written in Curls and Kindness

9. Harleen Kaur: Unframed

10. Rupinder: The Stairs

11. Hashmeet: Who Are You When No One Is Watching

12. Karamjot: Romanticizing My Life

13. Bhawandeep: Becoming My Own Power

14. Sehaj Arora: My Odyssey

15. Harleen: Born on Time

16. Sonali: From Sunrise to Sunset

17. Navneet: Feel Free to Fly

18. Aditi: My Love-Hate Relationship with Life

The activity proved to be an enriching exercise that promoted self-realization, self-reflection, and creative expression among students. Madam Principal Dr. Maneeta Kahlon lauded the innovative efforts of the department and motivated students to nurture a deeper passion for reading and writing.

The activity was conceptualized and executed by the faculty of the PG Department of English under the guidance of Dr. Anupam Vatsyayan, Head of the Department.

2. Departmental Meeting

September 08

A departmental meeting was convened to finalize the syllabus coverage for the Mid-Semester Tests scheduled to commence from September 25, 2025. During the meeting, faculty members were assigned specific classes for question paper setting, with due emphasis on key and significant topics. A comprehensive review of the question paper format across all courses was also undertaken. It was resolved that the internal evaluation pattern would be aligned with the University examination format to better prepare students for their final examinations.

Furthermore, teachers handling different groups/ sections of the same class were advised to maintain close coordination to ensure timely completion of the syllabi prior to the commencement of the Mid-Semester Tests.

3. Two-day Talent Hunt

4 students participated in the poetical recitation competition, presenting poems in English, Hindi, and Punjabi, showcasing their literary sensibility and powerful expressions. The Elocution competition gave a platform to 2 young speakers to articulate their thoughts within five minutes, combining clarity of speech with confidence.

The highlight of the day was the Debate Competition, where 13 students engaged in a spirited exchange of ideas on two stimulating topics: “Privacy is Dead in the Digital Age” and “AI will Replace Human Creativity”. The participants spoke both ‘for’ and ‘against’, reflecting sharp critical thinking and persuasive reasoning.

The competitions were judged by Mrs. Inderjit Kaur (Department of Punjabi), Ms. Kritika Gupta (PG Department of English), and Ms. Asha (Department of Hindi), whose expertise and insights enriched the event. Madam Principal, Dr. Maneeta Kahlon, motivated the students with her words of encouragement, appreciating their confidence and participation.

The event was smoothly executed by the Faculty of the PG Department of English, Organizing Secretary Dr. Gagneet Pal Kaur, and Coordinator, Illuminati, Dr. Anupam Vatsyayan. The day concluded with appreciation for the participants' creativity and intellectual energy, setting a vibrant tone for the second day of the Talent Hunt.

6. Departmental Meeting

September 16

A meeting of the English faculty was held to deliberate upon the marking scheme for the Mid-Semester Examinations to be conducted in the college from September 25 to October 11, 2025.

It was collectively resolved to adopt a standardized evaluation approach to ensure consistency and fairness in grading across all sections. Faculty members were also instructed to prepare and share detailed answer keys to maintain uniformity in assessment. In addition, teachers were encouraged to analyze student performance to identify advanced and slow learners, facilitating targeted academic support and enrichment strategies.

Internal assessment of students for the odd semester was also discussed during the meeting. Special cases were thoroughly examined and accuracy was maintained in the evaluation process. Additionally, the attendance records were carefully reviewed and cross-verified to maintain transparency and accountability.

7. Mid semester examination

September 25 to October 11

Mid semester examinations were conducted in the college from September 25 to October 11, 2025 in order to prepare students for the Panjab University Final Examinations scheduled in the last week of November 2025. Three centers have been established for the smooth conduct of these exams. Students from various streams appeared for these exams for better understanding of Panjab University NEP exam pattern and also to gear up for the end semester December 2025 examinations.

8. Parents Teachers Meet

October 25

Parents Teachers Meet was held on October 25, 2025. Performance of students in mid semester tests was discussed with the parents by their respective mentors. During the meet, students' strengths and areas of improvement were also discussed. During the meet, an open interaction was held with parents of students from different streams. Various student-oriented activities and extracurricular activities were discussed with parents. Academic performance of the students was shared by the concerned teachers. Students were also informed about the upcoming Panjab University examination.

9. Remedial Classes

November 07-13

The PG Department of English, in collaboration with the Equal Opportunity Cell of the college, conducted remedial/revision sessions of various classes from November 07-13, 2025. English teachers provided dedicated support, especially to slow learners, helping them overcome academic challenges and clarify their doubts. The initiative saw commendable participation, not only from slow learners but also from other students who eagerly took advantage of the opportunity to strengthen their preparation.
